Steve Warner NSW

A great landscape design creates a sense of place; it welcomes and encompasses you and your home

Winning the prestigious industry award for best residential landscape design in Australia 2010, OUTHOUSE Design demonstrates a passion for clean lines, natural materials and a strong planting connection. This balance creates a sensitive unity between house and garden.

Claire Maloney WA

Landscape designs should express everything you'd like your garden to be

Claire works closely with her clients to translate their ideas on paper. This results in personalised plans which allow gardens to be created in stages without compromising the final effect.
